Statement

AU appreciates the competitive job market and is aware that formal education credentials are not the only way to recognize and develop talent and that lifelong learning is an essential requirement for continuous development. Correspondingly, AU ensures that lifelong learning services and activities are provided and appropriately supported. These lifelong learning services and activities are provided and organized by several

In the academic year 2025, Ajman University (AU) has utilized the Lifelong Learning Access Policy to ensures all-inclusive lifelong learning opportunities are provided without any discrimination and irrespective of ethnicity, religion, race, disability, immigration status, gender or other such considerations. Ajman University enforces lifelong learning access policy as a cornerstone of inclusive, equitable, and quality education in alignment with quality education and reduced inequalities. Recognizing that formal credentials alone are insufficient in today's evolving job market, Ajman University provides accessible and inclusive lifelong learning opportunities for students, alumni, staff, and the broader community. Through the Continuing Education Center, Career Services, Community Engagement, Teaching and Learning Center, and Human Resources, Ajman University fosters skills development, professional growth, and social inclusion. Ajman University continues to ensure that access is not limited by gender, ethnicity, religion, disability, or immigration status, reflecting its commitment to equal opportunity and sustainable development. These initiatives enhance employability, promote resilience, and empower communities through continuous education and capacity building.
