Year 2023

17.4.1 Education for SDGs commitment to meaningful education

Ajman University is committed to meaningful education around the SDGs across the university, relevant and applicable to all students.

1. Academic Programs

- AU’s 22 undergraduate programs have sustainability as one of the mandatory topics to be covered within a variety of General Education courses as required by the UAE Ministry of Education.
- Moreover, 14 graduate programs address the SDGs. These are focused on innovation; excellence and lifelong learning; sustainability; and in-depth knowledge in leadership and strategic and operational solutions to challenges in various fields, including education, corporate, engineering and data science, architecture and design, healthcare, legal-private and public law.
- Mapping of AU programs’ learning outcomes with the UN SDGs are also provided as follows:
